ADMINISTER ACQUIRES SILTA AND BECOMES FINLAND'S LARGEST PAYROLL COMPANY

Electronic financial management specialist Administer acquires Sentica's portfolio company Silta from funds managed by Sentica and management. The acquisition will make Administer Finland's largest payroll company.

"With the acquisition Administer strengthens its payroll and HR services knowledge. The fast growing Administer and Silta have both invested heavily on payroll services development. Going forward we will together create new high-quality and technically advanced services, which will support our vast clientele and their business", states Administer's CEO and majority owner Peter Aho.

Silta will become a part of Administer Group and the current name and brand will remain the same. Silta's management and approximately 270 employees will continue in their roles. Silta, founded in 2001, operates from four locations in Finland and has a subsidiary in Tallin, Estonia. "By combining our strengths and knowledge with Administer, we can take payroll and HR services to a completely new level. We can also offer our customers Administer's extensive financial management services and capitalize on synergies forming in the combination", comments Silta's CEO Tatu Tulokas.

"We are glad that Silta is acquired by an entrepreneurial company, which has a strong will to develop its operations. As a part of strongly growing Administer, Silta will gain further resources and opportunities to grow its business profitably", describes Sentica's partner Christer Niemi.

Administer, offering comprehensive financial management services, had 20 million in sales in the previous year and the company employs 400 employees. After the transaction, the combined sales will reach some 50 million euros and the number of employees will rise close to 700. Silta's sales in 2017 were 19 million euros and the company produces some 110 000 payslips monthly. Along the acquisition, private equity company Bocap's fund will become a minority owner in Administer.
